PASSOVER WAS THE SIGNAL
THE PATTERN IS REPEATING

When the people of Israel lived in Egypt, they were first placed in the land of Goshen.

Goshen was a place of preservation. While the Egyptian empire surrounded them, the Heavenly Father protected His people and allowed them to grow as a nation.

Yet Goshen was never meant to be permanent.
It was a place of separation and preparation.

The turning point came on the night of Passover. The people placed the blood of the lamb on their doorposts and ate the meal with their sandals on, belts fastened, and staff in hand. They were ready to move.

Pharaoh did not release the people when the system was uncomfortable - he released them when the system was broken.

"Then he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, 'Rise, go out from among my people…'" - Exodus 12:31

PASSOVER BECAME THE SIGNAL TO LEAVE EGYPT.

The journey then led into the wilderness, where the Father began teaching His people how to live again according to His order.

Through the manna, bread from heaven appeared each morning. On the sixth day, they gathered double, and on the seventh day, none appeared.

In this way, the Heavenly Father restored the Sabbath rhythm and the sacred timing they had lost in Egypt.

The manna became more than food. It became a living calendar, teaching them again when to gather, when to prepare, and when to rest.

In Revelation 11:19, we are told that the Ark of the Covenant becomes visible in heaven.

The Ark contained three powerful reminders of this restoration: the tablets of instruction, Aaron's staff, and the manna.

Together they speak of order, authority, and provision.
And within that provision, the Father re-established His rhythm of time.

🌿 Goshen preserved the people.

🌿 Passover signalled their release.

🌿 The wilderness restored the Father's order.

To this day, Passover still speaks.

It points to Yeshua - the Lamb - whose covering brings deliverance to the obedient and whose intervention and ways release the Father's people from what holds them captive. Freedom is therefore not only leaving Egypt.

Freedom is learning again to live according to the Father's Timing, His Laws and His Ways.
